Privacy Policy

Policy Date: March 5, 2020

Sherwood Autism Center values the trust its donors place in the organization and adheres to the highest standards in gathering, using and safeguarding customer information. This includes all of the donor’s personal and gift information.

Why do we collect your personal information?

Your relationship with Sherwood is voluntary and confidential. We use your information to send you acknowledgement of your gift and information you may find of interest about Sherwood. If you do not wish to receive such communications, you may let us know at any time by contacting Sherwood’s Development Coordinator at (816) 381-9335.

Our Commitment to our Donors

We will not sell, share or trade our donors’ names or personal information with any other entity, nor send mailings or other communications to our donors on behalf of other organizations.

This policy applies to all information received by Sherwood, both online and offline, on any Platform (‘Platform’, includes the Sherwood website and mobile applications), as well as any electronic, written or oral communications.

To the extent any donations are processed through a third-party service provider, our donors’ information will only be used for purposes necessary to process the donation.

Our Commitment to Data Security

To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, we have put in place procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect. Firewalls prevent outside parties from accessing our database and internal Sherwood access to the database is restricted to authorized individuals.

Accountability

Sherwood Autism Center is an independent 501c (3) organization. When processing each gift, we will follow documented Sherwood business rules and agreements, the Donors’ Bill of Rights, and Generally Accepted Accounting Principles standards.

Questions or comments? Please contact Sherwood by phone at (816) 333-3344 or email contactus@sherwoodcenter.org.